

Solve each triangle. This means, calculate the measure of each missing angle and the length of each missing side of the given triangle.

